

2018â€™s Best Young Bread Baker announced 28 November 2018

An Auckland craft baker has won the 2018 Young Bread Baker of the Year Competition today, after two days of tough theoretical and practical testing.

Luke Frew, a baker at Miann Morningside, a patisserie and dessert restaurant, receives a $10 000 research grant, which he plans to use to travel to overseas baking conferences and get further training.
